General Information:

The Brock Open is sanctioned by the Ontario Fencing Association and the Canadian Fencing Federation. This event is worth CFF Domestic Points.

The Veterans competition is a point gathering competition; however weapons may be mixed if less than 6 participants in that event. This event is open to all classifications.

All participants are required to have a CFF Fencing License and a valid OFA competitive membership. Memberships must be purchased 48 hours prior to the competition. Registrations will only be accepted with a validated CFF License.

USFA members must show a valid USFA membership card

All fencers are REQUIRED to wear a sous-plastron. Track pants are acceptable but fencing pants are preferred. The current domestic competitions do not require the new conductive FOIL bib.

This competition will be run according to current FIE regulations. The Directoire Technique reserves the right to apply or modify these regulations as they see fit according to section t.15 of the FIE Rules.

All clubs are asked to bring at least one complete set of scoring equipment (more if possible) and if possible a referee or referee candidate.
